

Interaction of Alcohol and People in Nepal

: through Nutrition, Medicine and Anthropology

Feb 17, 2013

OBJECTIVES of WORKSHOP

To introduce the alcohol study and exchange ideas about local alcohol use and its association with nutrition and health status of the people, as well as cultural background in Nepal.

CONTENTS & SPEAKERS

13:00-13:10 Welcome Speech & Opening Remarks
(Ms. Kei Nagaoka, Kyoto University, Japan)

13:10-13:25 Introduction of the study
(Dr. Yumi Kimura, Kyoto University, Japan)

- Presentation of the research outcomes -

13:25-13:45 Topic 1: Process of alcohol and people's dietary intake
(Dr. Yumi Kimura, Kyoto University, Japan)

13:45-14:05 Topic 2: Alcohol consumption and health
(Dr. Yasuko Ishimoto, Kyoto University, Japan)

14:05-14:25 Topic 3: Role of alcohol in the community: with a focus on cultural behavior
(Ms. Kei Nagaoka, Kyoto University, Japan)

~ Tea break (15min) ~

- Presentation from local intellectuals -

14:40-15:00 Presentation by local academia
(Dr. Yamuna Khanal, Multi-Disciplinary Research Center, Nepal)

15:00-15:20 Speech by administrative coordinator
(Dr. Kisohr Chandra Khanal, Nepal Research Associate, Nepal
Aichi Prefectural University, Japan)

- Discussion with participants -

15:20-15:50 Modulator: Yumi Kimura

15:50-16:00 Summary of workshop and closing remarks
(Dr. Yasuko Ishimoto, Kyoto University, Japan)